

Lorrie B. Turner
Explores vibrance and luminosity in pastel

Lorrie B. Turner has been painting all her life, taking her first professional lesson at age eight and she had her first exhibition at age twelve (NYC schools, Board of Ed.) She continued her art education in New York City, and then went into advertising and the publishing/magazine world.

Lorrie's love affair with pastel, its vibrancy of color, its luminosity and sensuality all began about thirty-five years ago, although she still paints in oils. Her subject matter is an impressionistic urban-scape, water/marine-scape or whatever other world she happens to find herself, mirroring its and her many moods, personalities and feelings, both familiar and challenging. The very act of painting is a release of controlled emotion in color and energy. Painting outdoors or 'from life', is her main joy, many times creating a traffic jam in the middle of a normally busy city street, and at other times reflecting the alone-ness of an autumn beach.

Turner moved from New York to Florida in 2005, where she can paint "plein aire" almost all year. She has been teaching, giving demonstrations and workshops in pastel painting nationally and internationally for the past 30 years. In New York, she taught at the Pastel Society of America at their studios in the National Arts Club, as well as on Long Island, NY and now privately in her studio. "I learn almost as much from my students as they learn from me – especially humility." She also teaches workshops here and abroad, juries local art shows, and gives critiques as a program at various art clubs.

Light in the Garden

A Signature Member of the Artists' Guild and past 2nd Vice President & Gallery Director, she is also a Signature Member of the Pastel Society of America, and a past board member of PSA, Southwest Florida Pastel Society, Salmagundi Club and several local art clubs in New York and Florida. She has exhibited her paintings throughout the United States, as well as in Canada, Europe and China, and is included in many private and corporate collections.

A Message from the President

Dear Members;

The City Hall & Crest Theatre shows are in full swing and being viewed by many people. I have received several calls from people who have seen the shows and are interested in becoming a member.

Our facebook page is very active. Susan Sabin does a wonderful job with it. It has many fans, both artists and non-artists alike. If it relates to the DAL it is on there. Susan keeps you posted! Visit Delray Art League on facebook.

The holidays are upon us. Thanksgiving is here and gone and Hanukkah and Christmas will be here before we know it. Shoppers are skittering here and there, busy looking for sales and bargains. What can be closer to the heart than an original piece of art. We hope they will consider a purchase for a loved one.

For those of you who would like to help our servicemen & women overseas this holiday season, go to <http://www.give2thetroops.org/> for information. A card, letter or gift from the list of needed supplies would be most welcome and appreciated. You could address your letter "To an Artist in the military" and talk about your art. I'm sure there are artists over there who would love to have some supplies.

Peace, Health & Joy to all this Hanukkah and Christmas season.

Carole Z. Williams

Volunteer of the month spotlight

Susan Sabin, our publicity chair, makes sure word of the Delray Art League and its happenings are spread throughout the county. Susan places our information in newsletters, newspapers, online event sites, magazines and recently has started a terrific facebook page for us, http://www.facebook.com/pages/Delray-Art-League-presents-Artists-in-the-

The Crest Theatre Galleries Fall Art Show 2011 Winners

Comments from our juror Susan Hanssen

Thank you again for the wonderful opportunity to jury the show at the Crest Theatre.

The league should be very proud of the diversity and quality of work that is represented in this show. The Delray Art League has always had an excellent reputation and it is shows like this that hold that standard.

I based my choices on those pieces that engaged my interest every time I reviewed the show. They were beautifully designed, full of an idea, bold and personal.

Congratulations to the winners and to all the participants. Thank you.

Sincerely,
Susan Hanssen
